It is a very usual thing, says Hearth and Home, to meet sensible people in London who deplore the undoubted fact that young | the Company. girls will make up, at any rate while they are in London, will dye their pretty, fresh checks, outline their already sufficientlymarked eyebrows, redden their lips, and change the colour of their hair. But what will such people say when they hear of a baby of two years old making up," rather, being 'made up' ? Yet such a little monster exists. In America a rather wellknown and pretty woman, who goes much into society, does up her infant child as elaborately as abe does up herself. It may be seen at Saratoga in the season. looking like a fashionable notress. Its baby eyes are artificially brightened. It has false evebrows, cheeks picked out with rouge and whitened with powder, and carmine lips. With its baby bonnet is put on a false tringe, and in its cars glitter big diamond

THE charming operetta Boccaccio was played at the Theatre Royal last night by the Stanley Company. There was a falling off in the attendance, which was all the more regrettable as there was a distinct improvement in the singing and acting all round. Miss Cissic Denver, to whom the leading part was allotted, was in much better voice than she has been for a few nights and was repeatedly applauded for her charming singing and clever acting. Well-supported by the other members of the Company the performance was a success. The everfresh 'Varieties' will be presented to his patrons by Mr Stanley to night, and as a change of programme is promised there ought to be another bumper house. New dances will be introduced by Miss Mildred Trigge, Miss Tilly Lake, and Miss Florrie Stophenson, the three clever dancers of KRUPP, the celebrated German gun-maker. is meeting with a good many difficulties in arranging for his exhibit at the World's Fair. He expects to make the biggest show of his life, and among the features of his display will be one gan weighing 130 tons. It is impossible to get a derrick in New York big enough to lift this gun from the ship to the care, and Krapp is not sare that even then the guns can be shipped on any of the freight cars in this country. He would have to spend $60,000 to build a derrick big enough to lift his guns from the vessels, and under these circumstances be has about decided to ship his gras on his own cars, loading them in the largest freight steamers. These care are of the same gauge as the American railrouds.

Hongkong. Bad weather, but no great storm, is expected in the neighbourhood." In the meteorological register issued today the following barometrical readings are given for Hongkong-4 p.m. yesterday, 29.60; 10 a.m. to-day, 29.49; 4 p.m.

Of the vessels which went to shelter yesterday evening, the Honam left for Canton which was to leave for Cauton this afternoon, also left for shelter off Stonecutters' Island, joined by the Kwong Mo, Activ, Esmeralda, Chow Fa, Verona, Teheran and Bellona. The Dardanus has delayed her departure for Singapore.

THE WORK OF THE REGISTRAR

GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT. The N. C. Daily News has the following editorial comments on the work of the Repistrar General's Department :- An impression got abroad, it would seem, at Hongkong that the lot of their genial Registrar-General was a poculiarly happy one. It is true that upon him occasionally devolved the painful duty of causing his fellow-citizens to be fined for neglecting to register their babies' births. He had something. too, to do with the Tung-wah Hospital and with another Chinese institution still less easily pronounced. Except for the un-

Speaking generally, the Ordimance empowers the Registrar to interfere in all cases where he has reason to suspect that a girl is being detained against her will for immoral purposes, while it aims at the suppression of unregistered houses of ill fame. The proper carrying out of this most excellent, and (pace the faddists) righteous ordinance has devolved upon Mr Lockhart and his assistants an amount of work that is truly surprising -or would be, if we did not know how deeply rooted among the Chinese is the idea that a girl is merely a chattel, which her parents may sell, and other people may buy, at their will and pleasure. In this connection Mr Lockassistance given him by the Po Leung-kuk, the Hongkong Chinese Scriety for the Protection of Women and Children. But for their co-operation, lie observes, the work of restoring women and girls to their relatives could not be performed so effectively. The existence of societies like this and the Tung-wab Hospital, societies which If have no!] their counterpart (as Mr Lockhart incidentally remarks) on true benevolence there is smong the May be it is due to the inculcated by the native variety of Buddisism .- the storing up of merit .- but there it is, and is nowhere better illustrated than in connection with this rescue work in Hongkong. As the accommodation for the rescued girls (hitherto housed in the Tung-wah Hospital) was insufficient and unsuitable, the Chinese community of the colony have raised no less a sum than $30,000 for the srection of a proper building. It is interesting to note the different ways in which the rescued girls are disposed of. A good half are restored after close questioning at the Registror's
